Before you respond...

If you see a post about a district- or school-level issue that could create mass concern — or if you have questions about any online comment situation — contact your supervisor or the communications director FIRST. And in all cases...

- Be transparent by stating your connection to the school.
- Cite your sources by using hyperlinks, video, images, or other references.
- Take your time to think through your response. Don’t rush.
- Respond in a tone that reflects the professionalism, empathy, and mission of your school.
- Give thought to the most effective type of response. Don’t debate an issue or get into a negative conversation online. If appropriate, contact the commenter privately for a resolution and follow up online with an update or apology.
